SUMMARY

As a student in the dynamic field of Computer & Artificial Intelligence, with a focus on Data Science at Epsilon AI, I'm thrilled about embarking on a fresh adventure! I can't wait to dive into the exciting challenges that lie ahead, putting in the hard work to gain even more hands-on experience. My aim is to not only learn but to actively apply my growing skills in a practical setting. I'm eager to explore and contribute to the world of AI, making each step a new opportunity for growth and discovery.
